

7th Grade News

Dear parents,

We are off to a great start so far! It looks like the next couple of months will be busy. Here's the class news.

Mark Your Calendars:

- Our first class fieldtrip will be Tuesday, Oct. 27th from 8:30 to 11:00 am to the McCallum Theatre in Palm Desert. Please let me know if you can drive!
- 7th graders received materials to sell cheesecakes starting Monday, Sept. 14th and will sell for two weeks. All order forms and money is due on Monday, Sept. 28. Please do your best to help us raise class funds!
- 7th grade is scheduled for a Spaghetti lunch on Friday, Oct. 30th. Please contact Mrs. Flores or me if you can come and help out.
- We will have a parent meeting to discuss class fundraising Wednesday, Oct. 7, at 6:00p.m. in the school. Please plan to attend to have your voice heard!
- Iowa Basics testing will begin Thursday, Sept. 24th for seventh graders and continue to Thursday, Oct. 8th. Please make sure to arrive on time to school. Also, please make sure your children get enough rest and eat breakfast so they can do their best!!!

Reminders:

- Earthquake backpacks and emergency supplies need to be turned in as soon as possible. They were due September 11.
- Please work with your children to make sure all 6 of their textbooks are covered and they take care of their books!

Class Wish List:

- Off-white standard paper sized cardstock for projects
- Ink for Epson C120 Printer; Especially Yellow #69 and Blue #69
- Plain white copy paper
- Whiteboard erasers
- Whiteboard cleaning spray

Thank you so much for all your support!!!
